

Call for Rally

No deportations to Afghanistan
Afghanistan is no secure country of origin

Saturday Nov.14th. 2015, München
Sendlinger Tor, 1.30pm

In Afghanistan there is war since 40 years, daily there are bomb attacks and terror of Taliban against population, even in secure declared areas.

Stonings, kidnapping and murder are daily agenda.

Kundus, wellknown by stationing of German troupes during last years, was taken by Taliban not long ago.

The government it planning to bring stonings back to use. On Nov 8th seven Hasara people were beheaded near Kabul by jihadists.

Afghanistan is no secure country of origin. Noone can be deported there.

Considering, that Germany plans to make a deal with the corrupt Afghani government leaded by president Ashraf Ghani, in order to deport Afghani people into these unsecure circumstances, we, Afghani refugees call for a coutywide rally, against unhuman right, for our human right on secure stay.

Recently there have been several people deported in these unsecure circumstances. Therefore we, Afghani asylum seekers in Germany are organizing this rally to protest against that dirty business and to fight for our human rights.

Wie want to make our voices heard at the German government and the authorities responsible.

We want to achieve attendance at german citizens too and want to tell them: he a violation of our human rights is going to happen here.

We, Afghani people in Germany, want to appeal to love and humanity and want to invite all the people to support us on the rally, as well as all the other refugees, who are threatened by deportation, same like ourselves .
